The Bank advises that:

- ‘Investment’ by you is not a ‘personal, domestic or household purpose’ under the Consumer Credit Code.
- As a general rule, if you claim a taxation deduction of more than 50% of the interest and other charges on your loan, the loan would most likely be utilised wholly or predominantly for investment or business purposes.

† By law, a deposit product can only be discussed with a prospective customer by an adviser who is qualified under the law to give such advice. The adviser must hold (or be an authorised representative of an entity which holds) an appropriate current Australian Financial Services Licence or be a member (or an authorised representative of a member) of an Eligible Dispute Resolution Scheme.

If there is more than one of us signing this application form and the loan is not for personal, domestic or household purposes, Homeside will send loan documents to one of us for all of us to sign.

- Other credit providers: Homeside may obtain from, and give to, other credit providers named in this application form or in a credit report about me (or any other person who signs this application form) information about my credit worthiness, credit standing, credit history or credit capacity. This information may be used to assess this application, assist me to avoid defaulting on my credit obligations, to notify other credit providers of a default by me and/or to assess my credit worthiness.

FASTRefi process

- Request to use the FASTRefi process: I can request Homeside to use the FASTRefi process ("FASTRefi") if the loan requested in this application form is to refinance an existing loan with another lender and if I tick the relevant box (below where I sign).

FASTRefi allows Homeside to make a loan (to refinance another loan) before receiving the discharge of mortgage and title documents from the existing lender. FASTRefi will usually mean that it takes less time to settle the loan. The main impact of FASTRefi on me is explained below.

If I request FASTRefi to be used, Homeside will decide whether it is suitable. If Homeside decides at any stage that FASTRefi can't be used, Homeside will let my Broker's Representative know.

- The impact of FASTRefi on me:
 - Obtaining a first ranking mortgage for the new loan: My new Homeside loan must be secured by a first registered mortgage. Representatives of First American Title Insurance Company of Australia Pty Limited ABN 64 075 279 908 (the "title insurer") and its related company First Australian Title Company Pty Ltd ABN 61 075 151 898 ("First Title") will arrange to obtain security documentation for Homeside (the "First Title Representatives"). In particular the First Title Representatives will:
 - send the mortgagors the new mortgage documentation to sign and return;
 - obtain from my existing lender the discharge of the existing mortgage over the relevant security property;
 - address with the mortgagors and my existing lender any problems in obtaining a discharge of the existing mortgage; and
 - arrange the registration of the new mortgage for the new loan.
 - Additional documents for me to complete: The loan documents I receive from Homeside will include 3 FASTRefi documents: the 'Borrower's Acknowledgment and Undertaking', the 'Payout Advice' and the 'Irrevocable Authority'. The purpose of these documents is to enable me to confirm that I understand FASTRefi and to allow me to provide information about the amount required to pay out my existing loan. I will be required to provide the balance of my existing loan and set out the information in the 'Payout Advice' and to provide the most recent original statements of the loan account for at least the last 3 months. If the loan has a fixed rate or is with Adelaide Bank or ING Bank, I will be asked to obtain the existing lender's written confirmation of the payout figure.
 - Legal fee: A legal fee will be shown in my loan contract. This will be financed by my loan and will be used by Homeside to pay part of the legal costs of the First Title Representatives in preparing and registering the new mortgage.
 - Homeside's calculation of the payout figure for my existing loan: Homeside will use information I provide to estimate the payout figure for my existing loan. Homeside's estimate (the "estimated payout amount") will include a buffer in an effort to avoid a shortfall. This buffer includes one month's loan repayment, a provision for my existing lender's discharge of mortgage fee(s) which will either be the amount of the fees if known to Homeside or a $350 estimate and a further $500.
 - Insurance for Homeside: Homeside will apply to the title insurer for insurance for Homeside's benefit to cover the risk that the estimated payout amount advanced to my existing lender is less than the amount required to discharge my existing mortgage.
 - Advancing the estimated payout amount: Provided that the title insurer approves insurance for Homeside in relation to the new loan, Homeside will advance the new loan by debiting the estimated payout amount to my new loan account and paying these loan funds into my existing loan account.

If the estimated payout amount paid to my existing lender is more than the amount owed, the First Title Representatives will ask my existing lender to pay the overpayment to me (and any other borrowers). By allowing Homeside to use FASTRefi, I will incur loan interest on the amount debited to the new loan account (including the amount of the overpayment).
 - If the loan amount is not enough: If the loan amount paid by Homeside to my existing lender is not enough to discharge the existing mortgage, the First Title Representatives (and Homeside) will contact me (and any other borrowers) to resolve how the shortfall will be paid by the borrower(s).

- Exchanging my information with the title insurer, First Title and the First Title Representatives.

Homeside may disclose to each of the title insurer, First Title, the First Title Representatives, the title insurer's reinsurer and my existing lender, and any of them may obtain from Homeside, any information about me in relation to this application, my existing loan, my new Homeside loan or the security for my existing loan or new loan.

Each applicant signs this form to evidence their full agreement to all matters set out in it, including the declaration, acknowledgements and consents set out in the 'Consent' section.
