Balance Transfer Terms and Conditions. For your Balance Transfer Request to be considered you must have completed this Credit Card Application including section 'C' and return it to NAB.

'You' is the person who has completed this balance transfer request, 'NAB card account' is your NAB credit card account detailed on this Credit Card Application, 'NAB' is National Australia Bank Limited, 'these terms and conditions' mean these special promotion balance transfer terms and conditions and any terms applicable to the special promotion in promotional material, 'nominated account' is any account you have requested for balance transfer on this Credit Card Application, 'NAB card account terms and conditions' means the terms and conditions applicable to your NAB card account.

Processing your request

Within 5 business days after the date of receipt of the request, NAB will process each request for a balance transfer on this Credit Card Application and debit your NAB card account in accordance with your authority, provided:

- each balance transfer amount is $200 or more
- the total of the balance transfer amounts is less than the available credit on your NAB card account at the time the balance transfer request is processed. (NAB will transfer balance transfer amounts in the order they appear on this balance transfer request up to the available credit.)
- the nominated account is a non-NAB credit card or store card account issued in Australia. (Debit card accounts are not acceptable) and is not in default (eg overdue or over-limit) under its applicable terms and conditions on the date of this balance transfer request or at the date the request is processed.
- NAB may refuse any balance transfer request at its discretion.

Delay in processing

NAB is not responsible for any delay in processing your request whether by the NAB or any other institution including the issuer of the nominated account.

Balance transfer amounts

These amounts are designated cash advances for the purposes of the NAB card account terms and conditions.

The NAB card account terms and conditions, including all bank fees and charges and government charges and duties apply to balance transfer amounts debited to your NAB card account in accordance with your authority.

Other transaction amounts

Transactions other than balance transfer amounts requested in connection with this special promotion attract the purchase interest rate and cash advance interest rate you have been notified is applicable to the NAB card account.

Special promotion rate

The interest rate of 3.99%p.a. for Velocity NAB Credit Cards and the balance transfer interest rate of 0%p.a. for NAB Low Rate Visa Card:

- only applies to amounts transferred by NAB in connection with this special promotion
- is charged from the date the balance transfer amount is debited to your NAB card account
- only applies for a period of 6 complete monthly statement periods, unless the balance transfer amount is paid off earlier. If at the end of this period any portion of the balance transfer amount is owing, the amount will attract interest at the cash advance interest rate you have been notified is then applicable to your NAB card account.
- for NAB Low Rate Visa Cardholders please note the cash advance interest rate applicable to your NAB card account is higher than the purchase interest rate. Any outstanding balance transfer amount on your NAB card account at the end of the 6 month period will attract this higher cash advance interest rate rather than the lower purchase interest rate for your NAB card account.

Payments to the NAB card account

A payment to your NAB card account is applied to balance transfer amounts before any cash advance or purchase transaction. Your NAB card account terms and conditions set out the order for the application of payments.

Offer/Acceptance of NAB Card Account

If your application is approved, NAB will offer to enter into a credit card agreement with you and will issue you NAB Card Account Terms and Conditions. You accept that offer by first use of your NAB Card Account in accordance with those terms and conditions. In the event first use has not occurred when NAB processes your balance transfer request, then your first use of the NAB Card Account will occur when NAB debits your NAB Card Account with the balance transfer amount in accordance with your authority.

Nominated accounts

Your obligations in connection with any nominated account continue and you must pay any amounts due in accordance with applicable terms and conditions. NAB will not close any nominated account. This is your responsibility.
